

R:ETRO seminars 2021-22

Michaelmas Term 2021

16:00 20 October 2021 Sareh Pouryousefi, Ted Rogers School of Management, Ryerson University

Title: Empirical and philosophical reflections on trust in groups (with Jonathan Tallant)

16:00 3 November 2021 Guido Palazzo, HEC Lausanne, University of Lausanne

Title: The power of story in a world on fire: reflections on the transformational power of narratives

Watch the seminar

16:00 17 November 2021 Kirsten Martin, Mendoza College of Business, University of Notre Dame

Title: Algorithmic bias and corporate responsibility: how companies hide behind the false veil of the technological imperative

Watch the seminar

16:00 1 December 2021 Denis G. Arnold, The Belk College of Business, UNC Charlotte

Title: Care in management

Watch the seminar

Hilary Term 2022

16:00 26 January 2021 Mollie Painter, Nottingham Business School, Nottingham Trent University

Title: Being relational: what identity-work can and cannot do for us in diversity and inclusion programmes

Watch the seminar

16:00 9 February 2022

Caleb Bernacchio, California State University Monterey Bay

Title: Why the market failures approach (MFA) needs virtue

Watch the seminar

16:00 23 February 2022

Tobey Scharding, Rutgers Business School

Title: The utility of trust: interpersonal, institutional, and technological

Watch the seminar

16:00 9 March 2022

Harry van Buren III, Opus College of Business, University of St Thomas

Title: A structural injustice approach to business ethics

Watch the seminar

Trinity Term 2022

16:00 4 May 2022

Anne-Laure Fayard, Nova School of Business & Economics

Title: Technology-as-Monster: a generative metaphor to explore artificial intelligence possibilities and risks (with Graham Dove)

Watch the seminar

16:00 18 May 2022

Tae Wan Kim, Carnegie Mellon University

Title: When is it ethically admissible for artificial intelligence to lie?

Watch the seminar

16:00 1 June 2022

Joanne B. Ciulla, Rutgers Business School

Title: Leadership, resentment/ressentiment and the inversion of values

Watch the seminar

16:00 15 June 2022

Jeremy Moon, Copenhagen Business School

Title: Corporate social responsibility and government: the role of discretion for engagement with public policy (with Jette Steen Knudsen)

Watch the seminar